

Q3 Academy Langley Assessment Record

Subject: GCSE Geography

Subject Code: 8035

Date of Assessment	Type of Assessment	AOs covered	Rationale for Assessment	Level of Control
October 2019	Variable Prediction based upon: GCSE Part Paper Classwork Homework	AO1, 2, 3, 4	Assessment covered 'The Challenge of Natural Hazards' and 'The Living World' elements of Paper 1 which were the topics covered in the first two months of the course. The assessment was marked using the mark scheme from AQA. Grade boundaries were generated using national grade boundaries as a guide. Moderation of assessments took place with GCSE Geography examiners. Classwork and homework considered but most of the grade weighting was based was assessment-based.	Medium- the assessment was completed under strict exam conditions but students in different groups took the assessment at different times, classwork and homework done in low-level/ unsupervised conditions. Students with access arrangements were given the required arrangements including readers, scribes, extra time, coloured paper and laptop use.
February 2020	Variable Prediction based upon: GCSE Part Paper Classwork Homework Fieldwork	AO1, 2, 3, 4	Assessment covered all elements of Paper 1. The assessment was marked using the mark scheme from AQA. Grade boundaries were generated using national grade boundaries as a guide. Moderation of assessments took place with GCSE Geography examiners. Classwork and homework considered but most of the grade weighting was based was assessment- based.	Medium- the assessment was completed under strict exam conditions but students in different groups took the assessment at different times, classwork and homework done in low-level/ unsupervised conditions. Students with access arrangements were given the required arrangements including readers, scribes, extra time, coloured paper and laptop use.
October 2020	Variable Prediction based upon: GCSE Part Paper Classwork Homework	AO1, 2, 3, 4	Assessments covered all elements of Paper 2. The assessment was marked using the mark scheme from AQA. Grade boundaries were generated using national grade boundaries as a guide. Moderation of assessments took place with GCSE Geography examiners.	Medium- the assessment was completed under strict exam conditions but students in different groups took the assessment at different times, classwork and homework done in low-level/ unsupervised conditions. Students with access arrangements were given the required arrangements including readers, scribes, extra time, coloured paper and laptop use.

December 2020	GCSE Full Papers	AO1, 2, 3, 4	Assessments covered all elements of Paper 1 and 2. The assessment was marked using the mark scheme from AQA. Grade boundaries were generated using national grade boundaries as a guide. Moderation of assessments took place with GCSE Geography examiners. Classwork and homework considered but most of the grade weighting was based was assessment- based.	High- the mock exams were completed in exam conditions with exam invigilators. Students with access arrangements were given the required arrangements including readers, scribes, extra time, coloured paper and laptop use.
May 2021	GCSE Full Papers	AO1, 2, 3, 4	Assessments covered all elements of Paper 1 and 2. The assessment was marked using the mark scheme from AQA. Grade boundaries were generated using national grade boundaries as a guide. Moderation of assessments took place with GCSE Geography examiners.	High- the mock exams were completed in exam conditions with exam invigilators. Students with access arrangements were given the required arrangements including readers, scribes, extra time, coloured paper and laptop use.